THE ELECTION.

The Excitement Yesterday—The Tide Changing—An Intense Feeling Prevailing All Parties—the Result Resting on One or Two Counties—A Contest in Mecklenburg.

Persons leaving the city for
the Summer can have the DAILY
News sent to them for 75 cents per month, postage prepaid. The address may be changed as often as desirable.

FOR SALE—We are requested to state that 3,000 Chinese lanterns will
be sold at the Republican headquarters. Apply early.

THE REV. MR. MANGUM.—This
gentleman, who has been the beloved
pastor of Edenton Street M. E.
Church of this city for several years,
and who has recently been elected
one of the Faculty of the State University, on Sunday preached his farewell sermon to his congregation, a
large crowd being in attendance, and
it is needless to say that the parting
remarks of this divine touched a
tender chord in the breasts of those
who have so long sat under his ministration. He will be succeeded by
Rev. Mr. Burkhead, former pastor of the same church.

Mr. Mangum carries with him into
his new vocation the good wishes of
this entire community, and we feel
sure he will win both honor and distinction as Professor of the revived
University.

THE OLD ETNA.—In calling attention to the notice of the Old and
Reliable Etna Life Insurance Company a few days ago, we inadvertently omitted to state that the great
success of this company in the State
is mainly due not only to the efficiency but the character of its General Manager, Mr. W. H. Crow. He is
the pioneer of Life Insurance in the State, commencing with the Old
Etna in 1865 and has never changed,
his company or tactics and to-day
is doing the largest business of any other company. The Company was fortunate in securing the services of
Mr. Crow as there is no man in Virginia or North Carolina with a better
business reputation and character
than him.

AN EXCITING CHASE.—Right in
the midst of the election excitement
yesterday, while the editorial offices
of the News were thronged with
visitors eagerly waiting and watching for the next telegram, several pistol shots were heard on the street
and a general exodus ensued. We of course took the lead and soon found
that St. Carver, of the city police force, in taking a prisoner, John
Perry, col., to jail, found it necessary
to fire on his prisoner who took leg
bail. Four shots were fired without
effect and the prisoner was run down
and recaptured in the house of Mr.
Whitaker, at the corner of McDowell
and Davis streets, where he sought refuge. He was taken to jail, where he will doubtless remain till his trial
comes off.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF THE R.
L. L.—The annual meeting for the election of officers of this Company
was held at their armory on Friday
night last.

Capt. B. C. Manly was unanimously
re-elected Captain.
First Lieut.—F. F. Pease, Jr.
Second Lieut.—J. R. Ferrall.
S. G. Bagley.
First Sergeant—J. T. Pullen.
Second "—F. Heart.
Third "—D. W. Bain.
Fourth "—R. I. Williams.
Fifth "—E. F. Smith.
First Corporal—J. Muller.
Second "—J. C. Miller.
Third "—W. H. Miller.
Fourth "—F. A. Olds.
Color Sergeant—C. Weikel.
D. R. Upchurch, Color Guard.
C. M. Busbee, Color Guard.

This Company now numbers 50,
and bids fair to be the leading military organization in our State.

THE VOICE OF WAKE.
The following is the official vote of Wake county on the 5th inst., for the different candidates for Convention:

	W. H. CROW	W. H. CROW	W. H. CROW	W. H. CROW
W. H. CROW	1,000	1,000	1,000	1,000
W. H. CROW	1,000	1,000	1,000	1,000
W. H. CROW	1,000	1,000	1,000	1,000
W. H. CROW	1,000	1,000	1,000	1,000

The excitement with both political parties raged at fever throughout the day yesterday. Both parties claimed the election and each doubted the truth of the other's statements.

Do not be misled into the belief that every white neck-to-you see encircles a ministerial throat. If that were so, there would be some lively old persons in this city.

There are the Roman noses, the dish nose, the snub nose, and a diversity of other kind of noses, but the ugliest nose is the one that pokes itself into other people's business.
Every one knows it.

Sunday was an unusually quiet day in the city. All the churches were largely attended and for the nonce
the people seemed to forget that an election was ever held. The church doors were hardly closed, however,
before the same general rush of questions, how is it now? &c., greeted us.

There is no better way, no safer way, no easier way, no surer way of saying children from the debasing influence of the street, from corruption associations, and from the acquisition of vicious and hurtful practices, than to make home attractive.

Give a boy a market-basket of groceries to carry home and he will
swing it across his spine, bend half
way to the ground and groan with
agony, but give him that weight of
base ball bats and he will skip along
as merry as a potato bug in a ten acre
lot.

This vote foots up as follows:
Democratic—Gales 3777, Battle
3757, Holland 3736, Jones 3702.
Republican—Nowell 4272, Badger
4224, Hodge 4185, Davis 4203.

swing it across his spine, bend half
way to the ground and groan with
agony, but give him that weight of
base ball bats and he will skip along
as merry as a potato bug in a ten acre
lot.

This vote foots up as follows:
Democratic—Gales 3777, Battle
3757, Holland 3736, Jones 3702.
Republican—Nowell 4272, Badger
4224, Hodge 4185, Davis 4203.

THE ELECTION.

The Excitement Yesterday—The Tide Changing—An Intense Feel-
ing Prevailing All Parties—the Result Resting on One or Two Counties—A Contest in Mecklenburg.

Persons leaving the city for
the Summer can have the DAILY
News sent to them for 75 cents per
month, postage prepaid. The address may be changed as often as desirable.

FOR SALE—We are requested to
state that 3,000 Chinese lanterns will
be sold at the Republican headquarters. Apply early.

THE REV. MR. MANGUM.—This
gentleman, who has been the beloved
pastor of Edenton Street M. E.
Church of this city for several years,
and who has recently been elected
one of the Faculty of the State University, on Sunday preached his fare-
well sermon to his congregation, a
large crowd being in attendance, and
it is needless to say that the parting
remarks of this divine touched a
tender chord in the breasts of those
who have so long sat under his ministration. He will be succeeded by
Rev. Mr. Burkhead, former pastor of the same church.

Mr. Mangum carries with him into
his new vocation the good wishes of
this entire community, and we feel
sure he will win both honor and distinction as Professor of the revived
University.

THE OLD ETNA.—In calling attention to the notice of the Old and
Reliable Etna Life Insurance Company a few days ago, we inadver-
tently omitted to state that the great
success of this company in the State
is mainly due not only to the efficiency but the character of its General
Manager, Mr. W. H. Crow. He is
the pioneer of Life Insurance in the
State, commencing with the Old
Etna in 1865 and has never changed,
his company or tactics and to-day
is doing the largest business of any other company. The Company was fortunate in securing the services of
Mr. Crow as there is no man in Virginia or North Carolina with a better
business reputation and character
than him.

AN EXCITING CHASE.—Right in
the midst of the election excitement
yesterday, while the editorial offices
of the News were thronged with
visitors eagerly waiting and watching for the next telegram, several pistol shots were heard on the street
and a general exodus ensued. We of
course took the lead and soon found
that St. Carver, of the city police
force, in taking a prisoner, John
Perry, col., to jail, found it necessary
to fire on his prisoner who took leg
bail. Four shots were fired without
effect and the prisoner was run down
and recaptured in the house of Mr.
Whitaker, at the corner of McDowell
and Davis streets, where he sought
refuge. He was taken to jail, where
he will doubtless remain till his trial
comes off.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF THE R.
L. L.—The annual meeting for the election of officers of this Company
was held at their armory on Friday
night last.

Capt. B. C. Manly was unanimously
re-elected Captain.
First Lieut.—F. F. Pease, Jr.
Second Lieut.—J. R. Ferrall.
S. G. Bagley.
First Sergeant—J. T. Pullen.
Second "—F. Heart.
Third "—D. W. Bain.
Fourth "—R. I. Williams.
Fifth "—E. F. Smith.
First Corporal—J. Muller.

tary organization in our State.

Gov. Brodhead yesterday appointed D. M. Furber, Esq., of Iredell, Judge of the Superior Court of the 10th Judicial District, vice Judge Mitchell resigned.

In the absence of the Editor from the city, and in the necessary confusion in our editorial room yesterday in consequence of the intense anxiety felt by the general public to know the result of the election, we are almost wholly unable to give any editorial matter this morning. Our readers, we trust, will know how to pardon us, or at any rate they must do so.

SENATOR JOHNSON leaves a widow, two daughters and one son: Mrs. Patterson, wife of ex-Senator Patterson, the lady of the White House who received and entertained during her father's administration with such dignity and grace; Mrs. Brown, formerly Mrs. Stover, at whose residence he died; and Andrew Johnson, Jr., of the Greenville Intelligencer.

The recent escape of the defaulting ex-Treasurer Parker, of South Carolina, from the Columbia jail, has created quite a sensation in our sister State. It was made on the night of the 4th inst. The lovers of law and order in that State hope for the speedy capture of this thief.

P. S.—Since the above was written our telegraphic advices state that Parker had been captured in Camden, S. C.

THE RESULT.
At the time of this writing (Monday noon) it is still impossible to tell how the election of last Thursday has resulted, and it may require the official returns from the whole State to decide. The excitement yesterday was even more intense than it was on Saturday, as the returns from several counties somewhat changed the complexion of affairs, and made it more possible and indeed almost probable that a Democratic majority had been elected. This news awakened more hopes in the breasts of the many Democrats who had given up the State, and we only hope that the latest news which we shall give upon our first page will sustain the expectations thus awakened.

THE FALL ELECTIONS, this year, though of no great importance intrinsically, will be watched with interest on account of their bearing on the Presidential campaign of next year. The first comes off in California September 1, the Arkansas election comes one week later, and that of Maine follows September 13; Iowa and Ohio vote October 12; New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland, Mississippi, Minnesota, Kansas and Virginia hold their elections November 2, and Texas votes the following week. The chief interest, of course, centres in Ohio, where the battle will be fought, in part, upon the issue of Forced Resumption.

Our Dublin friends could not get through the celebration of the O'Connell centennial, says the Petersburg Index, without the commission of an act of folly, the effects of which will probably rebound to their own injury. We deeply regret that on an occasion which should have possessed nothing but a national use and meaning, should have been perverted by bigots to the stirring up of bad blood, and to the display at least of violent dispositions. This mad temper of the Irish has always been the worst enemy they have had to encounter in the attainment of their national independence. They have not lacked for genius or courage or military art. They have only needed self-restraint, and have never had it.

THE RESULT IN ALABAMA.

ALABAMA on Wednesday last had a similar contest to the one which took place in this State on the 5th inst., and we are glad to know that the friends of law and order in that oppressed State have come out more than successful; indeed, Radicalism has sustained a Waterloo defeat in Alabama, and we extend our hearty congratulations to our friends in that quarter of the South. Whatever may be the result of the contest in this State last week, whether for the weal or woe of the honest citizens of North Carolina, we can but feel glad to see our sister Southern States throwing off the ignoble yokes under which they have been compelled to live ever since Radicalism has been allowed to sap their life-blood and to blight their very existence.

The Convention was called by a vote of from 15 to 20,000, and the Montgomery Mail and Advertiser gives the following as the probable complexion:

Democrats..... 80
Independents..... 9
Radicals..... 10

At the commencement of the University of the South, at Suwanee, Tennessee, on Thursday, Gen. T. L. Clingman, of North Carolina, delivered an address on the "Defects of Public Speakers and the Characteristics of Popular Orators." The address is published entire in the New York Tribune, which bestows upon it an editorial compliment. We have read General Clingman's effort with great interest, says the Petersburg Index. It abounds in sketches and reminiscences of the great orators of the country, with whom the General had so favorable an opportunity of both public and personal acquaintance, during his term of service in the United States Senate. It is also of high moral tone and practical value. We hope to be able at an early day to lay Gen. Clingman's address in full before the readers of this paper.

The New York Herald of Saturday says that Drexel, Morgan & Co. on Friday issued a circular that will give comfort to all who have friends travelling in Europe with letters of credit from the house of Drexel, Sherman & Co. By the request of Mr. Alexander Drexel, Drexel & Morgan have undertaken to protect the letters of credit issued by the suspended firm. This news will give public satisfaction in this country, and is a pleasing proof of the honorable spirit which marked the dealings of the house of Drexel, Sherman & Co.

THE PEACE OF EUROPE is again in danger. This time from Herzegovina. Not that this minute speck on the map is likely to do much damage by itself, says the New York Herald, but it has the same relation to latent destructive forces that a match has to a barrel of gunpowder. The latest accounts show the insurrection increasing in strength, and at any moment the Servians may take a hand in it. Should this happen there would probably result such an explosion as would make the last war between Germany and France seem only a very small affair.

The New York market is overstocked with Delaware peaches. On Thursday morning, 75 car loads of these peaches, aggregating 30,000 crates, arrived in Jersey City, and were sold at $1 and $1.25 per crate. In the afternoon the commission merchants were informed that 100 additional car loads were on the way, and in view of the approaching glut, they began to sell at a loss. The freight on each car is from 30 to 35 cents.

Iredell claims the champion Sheriff of the State, Tom Watts. He canvassed the county for Convention. Now there is no other Democratic Sheriff in the State that took the stump for Convention? If so speak out and let us come up to good old Iredell.

The Brooklyn Eagle indignantly denies that Plymouth church is short of funds, and contemplates a mortgage to raise Beecher's $10,000. It says that a few of the people put up $50,000 at once. Money is no consideration with them.

Johnson is the third President whose remains are in Tennessee, and there is a project to bury him with the others in Nashville and erect a grand monument; but his family prefer a simple grave in East Tennessee.

R. C. Parrish, Esq., a brother of Dr. T. C. Parrish of Raleigh, and Col. C. A. Parrish, of Hillsboro, died in Tusculum, Ala., on the 21st of July. He was a native of Orange county.

Col. Baker's "Irregularity" in a railroad-carriage in England is said by the English papers to be the logical result of reading reports of our National Scandal.

Barnum is going to lecture next season on "The World We Live In." How about the balloon we leave the world?

State papers are filled up with the election news, therefore our State column is necessarily short to-day.

The tobacco crop in Rockingham is the finest ever known at this season, says the Heraldville News.

A new Postoffice has been established at Oregon Hill, Rockingham county.

The South Raising Its Own Food Supplies.

Several indications have recently been given of a change of agricultural policy in the South, whereby the planters will endeavor to grow their own food supplies, instead of being dependent for them upon other sections of the country. A contemporary published at Selma, Alabama, says that the "canebrake region" of that State, instead of buying corn this year will have plenty of its own growth and some to spare. The planters every year heretofore have borrowed and sent to the northwest hundreds and thousands of dollars to pay for corn and forage and their transportation, and have depended on their cotton crop to pay the debt. Now, however, this money is either in the pockets of the "canebrake" planters, or will be as soon as their cotton is marketed. This policy of growing a home supply of corn will also tell in future seasons in producing a home supply of provisions. The planters at that time they hope to produce their own beef and bacon. The prospect is so promising, our contemporary adds, that planters who do it next year, and then there will be a surplus of hundreds of thousands of bushels; there will be corn every where, corn plenty, and to spare. There will be corn in abundance where there never was corn before. This policy, which thus seems to have obtained a promising start in a thrifty section of Alabama, although not yet general in the South, is a wise one. The rotation of crops is one great cause of agricultural success and of wealth in the North and West. To save the cost of transportation and the expense of their own food is another source of prosperity in many of the States. The Alabama planters are urged to continue producing corn and convert it into meat at home. Experiments that have been made, show that this can be done successfully in Alabama as in Kentucky or Tennessee, where this wholesome rule has been long in vogue. The deprecations of slaves are complained of as a drawback upon stock raising in the South, but this, it is thought, will decrease employment and industry increase, and as the laws come to be enforced with more certainty.—Charlotte Observer.

GETTING TETONIC LEARNING.

Fourteen hundred young Americans are prosecuting their studies at the universities and colleges, music schools and conservatories of Germany, and recent criticisms and reports testify to their being very apt scholars, and, moreover, these reports proceed from German authorities extremely exacting and not over addicted to eulogizing the foreigners. America's young crowd of students at the thorough German universities, learn German well, and play Beethoven and Mozart on the piano "with elegance, lightness and correctness." The more they study in Deutschland, the more they love Germany, and often very little knowledge and skill they go safely, as they see the way clearly before them. The large planters, on the contrary, often with their own hands to the plow, and often very little knowledge and skill they go safely, as they see the way clearly before them. The large planters, on the contrary, often with their own hands to the plow, and often very little knowledge and skill they go safely, as they see the way clearly before them.

WHY SMALL FARMERS ARE PROSPEROUS.

We have often had occasion to call attention to the fact that those who are accustomed to call "small farmers" are generally the most prosperous people in the South. They are not so because small farms and very limited operations, in themselves, best adapted to the circumstances of the South. They have accepted the situation, and put their own hands to the plow, and often very little knowledge and skill they go safely, as they see the way clearly before them. The large planters, on the contrary, often with their own hands to the plow, and often very little knowledge and skill they go safely, as they see the way clearly before them.

NEGRO MURDERERS HANGED.

Justice by the rope was yesterday done on two negro murderers, one in Alabama and the other in Georgia. Both men had well merited the doom they met, and, though one denied his guilt up to his death, there is no reason to doubt that he was justly punished. We are glad to notice that in the South justice is speedily executed on murderers who happen to be caught. There is no unhealthy sympathy for the criminal who is fast in the hands of the law. In this way only can the death penalty be made to exercise to the fullest extent its deterrent influence on the ignorant and brutal. It is to be regretted that a similar healthy feeling does not pervade this State. We have too much sentimental tenderness for murderers and not enough for their victims.—N. Y. Herald.

POLITICAL MILLENNIUM.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press says: The tickets of the respective parties in Minnesota are being sold, and the Republican candidates a little the strongest. But there is not difference enough in either case to set the eagle on fire. The Democrats are as good as lost. Let us have peace.

HIS OWN.

"Yes, these are awful hard times," said a suffering capitalist, on La Salle street, as he stood on his steps, talking to a friend, last evening.

WHY.

"Why," said the broker, "I've been investing and investing for a year back—a pile of money, I assure you—and I find I've been losing like fury."

TRULY I'M LIVING.

"Truly I'm living. I've lost a cent, I've lost more than $300,000." "No?"

"CERTAINLY."

"Certainly," continued the broker, "and what makes me feel the worst, is that fully $150 of it was my own."

THE RETURNS OF THE CENSUS OF NEW YORK CITY.

The returns of the census of New York city, recently taken under the authority of the municipal government, have been published, though not yet entirely completed. The aggregate population of the city, including portions recently annexed, is put down at one million and fifty thousand. This is several hundred thousand less than what has been claimed by the city authorities. The increase, as compared with that census, is less than one hundred thousand.

The Bible is about to be circulated in Turkey under government sanction. What, then, will become of the Koran?

HOW THE SUN MOVED A BRIDGE.

During a recent building of a bridge in Holland, one of the traverses, four hundred and sixty feet long, was misplaced on the supports. It was an inch out of line, and the problem was how to take it up. Experiments proved that the iron work expanded a small fraction of an inch to every degree of heat received. It was noticed that the night and day temperature varied about ten or twelve degrees, and it was thought this might be made to move the bridge. In the morning one end of the pieces was bolted down securely and the other end was free. In the heat of the sun the iron expanded, and toward night the free end was loosened. The contraction then dragged the whole mass the other way. For two days this experiment was repeated, and the desired place reached. The contraction and expansion of iron bars by fire heat has frequently been used to move heavy weights over short distances. Broken walls and strained roofs and arches have been brought into place by simply heating iron rods till they expanded, and then pulling them out, and allowing contraction by cold to pull the wall or roof into place.

A HALO AROUND THE SUN.

On Sunday, August 1st, a remarkable halo around the sun was visible from Northern New York, Vermont and New Hampshire. The local papers all contain accounts of the phenomenon, which agree substantially as to the appearance of the halo. The sky was covered at the time with a layer of thin attenuated cirrus clouds, composed of minute crystals of ice. These refracted the rays of the sun, and produced all the phenomena noted by the Syracuse Journal. Such spectacles are seldom seen in the latitude of Syracuse, but are of frequent occurrence in the polar regions, where, with the exception of the aurora borealis, they make some atonement for the discomforts of arctic travellers.

Ottoman's counsel will appeal for a reduction of bail, which is now $100,000. Ottoman had a special deposit in the Government Savings Bank at Alexandria. The package found contains a curious box, in which twenty-nine hundred dollar bills were found. The box is evidently made for the purpose of burying money safely. # THE CONDITION OF THE CROPS IN EUROPE.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Mark Lane Express in its review of the crops made the past week says the weather, though broken has been on the whole tolerably fine. The crops are progressing favorably, but it is useless to expect plenty of quality of last year after a nearly sunless July and such heavy rain fall, so they have found in France as far as they have gone, and flour has risen four francs per sack in Paris.

The bulk of our own harvest is uncut, some of our country markets have hesitated about submitting to any decline, though generally they are reached to 2 shillings per quarter. Large speculative purchases have been made in London on American account. The London market closed with an improved aspect and an upward tendency which must be swayed entirely by the weather. There certainly seems quite a chance of a rise as far as flour is concerned.

THE BUFFALO LITHIA WATERS.

As a Medicinal Agent!

DYSPEPSIA.

Case of the Rev. Edward Hines, of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina.
GRANVILLE CO., N. C., Oct. 20, 1871.
Col. THOS. F. GOODE:

Dear Sir—It affords me great pleasure to place at your disposal the following statement, showing benefit derived from the use of the Buffalo water. During the earlier part of my life, for more than twenty years, I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia, accompanied with frequent and violent attacks of nervous headache, having at least one attack every week, which lasted generally about twenty-four hours. During the month of August, 1871, I spent a week at Buffalo Springs. From that time I derived decided benefit, and after a few months, the old symptoms returned with all their former violence, and continued to the 1st of August, 1872, when, slowly recovering from a long spell of typhoid fever, I again visited the Buffalo Springs, remaining there about four weeks, using the water freely during the whole time. The result was perfect relief from dyspepsia, and its accompanying ill, nervous headache. From that day to the present my health has been uniformly good, and to-day I am in a condition to do my usual work, and feel that the Buffalo water has done for me what no other medicine could have done. I am, therefore, the more anxious to see that you are not asking too much.

Sincerely yours,
E. HINES.

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS EXCITEMENT, ETC.
Case of the Rev. Herbert T. Bacon of the Virginia Methodist Conference.
CLARKSVILLE, VA., March 30th, 1871.
Col. THOS. F. GOODE:

Dear Sir—It is with much pleasure I avail myself of the opportunity to attest the virtues of the waters of the Buffalo Springs, and with the hope that others who have been sufferers like myself, may enjoy the benefits.

In the summer of 1870, I paid my first visit to the springs, and was struck by the water, which I had been told was good for the stomach.
